FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DTS Signs Protos, Inc. as First U.S. Sales Rep

Seal Beach, CA (September 2012) – Diversified Technical Systems, a leading manufacturer of data recorders and sensors, has signed Protos, Inc. as its first sales representative in the United States.

With corporate headquarters in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Protos will represent DTS products and services in Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. The Protos team is comprised of degreed engineers with over 75 collective years of solution-based sales experience in high tech industries including oil, gas, aerospace, aviation and seismology. DTS is excited to work with the Protos team on servicing existing customers and developing new sales and applications, especially in core local markets.

About DTS: Diversified Technical Systems manufactures data acquisition systems and sensors for dynamic testing and human injury assessment. Since 1990, DTS has been the leading provider of advanced measurement solutions that require high-speed, miniature, shock-hardened data recorders and sensors. Based in Seal Beach, California, DTS has global offices in Michigan, Australia, China, Germany and Japan. Visit www.dtsweb.com for more information on the full line of DTS products and services.
